Associate of Arts in Teaching

TEXAS SOUTHMOST COLLEGE
Division of Humanities

Students can secure employment as a paraprofessional with a school district with an AAT degree. In order to apply for a paraprofessional position, they need at least 60 semester credit hours of university coursework. Once they have been employed as a paraprofessional for a year or more then they can apply for a student teaching exemption. If they are approved for this exemption then they can get waived from their student teaching course.
