6 Bond Projects

Consideration and Possible Action on Schematic Designs for Center for Early Childhood Studies

Ms. Veronica Mendez, Assistant Vice President for Construction, explained that the schematic design phase is the first phase of the construction document development that is used by contractors to build the facility. Ms. Mendez explained that Wells Janousek Architects are based in Dallas, Texas. They are a small firm that specializes in the design of creative and nurturing environments for children and families. Mr. Wells is the principal person in charge of the project and Mr. Janousek is the project manager for the Center for Early Childhood studies.

Ms. Zimmerman, Trustee Liaison for this project, reported that the Board Bond Advisory Committee for the Center for Early Childhood Studies met on Monday, October 2 to review the schematic design that Mr. Janousek presented. The meeting was well attended with members of the faculty, staff as well as community members. Also in attendance was Mr. Chester Gonzalez, Chairman.

A motion was made by Ms. Zimmerman to approve the Schematic Design for Center for Early Childhood as presented; seconded by Mr. Oliveira; motion carried unanimously. Exhibit “E”

Consideration and Possible Action on Schematic Designs for Music Education Building

Ms. Mendez reported that the Board Bond Advisory Committee for the Music Education Building met on Wednesday, October 11 to review the schematic design by Studio Red managed by Garrett Wood. The meeting was well attended. Present were UTB/TSC students, faculty, and staff representatives as well as community members. Also present was Chairman Gonzalez.

Ms. Mendez mentioned that the Music Campus Advisory Committee traveled to Houston to tour the Kindaid School Theater, the model for the Music Education building project. Dr. Sue Zanne Urbis, Chair of the Fine Arts Department, reported on the programmatic use of the facility and stated that the rehearsal halls will provide appropriate space for concert bands, wind ensemble, jazz bands, master chorale, University Choir, symphony orchestra and string orchestra. In addition, the teaching studios will provide suitable acoustics and design for all applies lessons, section rehearsals, duets, trios, and quartets.

Mr. Gonzalez explained that the facility will serve as a community outreach and recruitment tool as the Fine Arts Department intends to host the University Interscholastic League (U.I.L.) competitions for the lower valley. In addition the Music department plans to host festivals and camps for the community.

A motion was made by Mr. Gonzalez to approve the Schematic Design for Music Education Building as presented; seconded by Mr. Oliveira; motion carried unanimously. Exhibit “F”

Student Affairs Partnership Committee Report

Ms. Zimmerman reported that the Student Affairs Partnership Committee met on October 24, 2006. Members present were Dr. Hilda Silva, Vice President for Student Affairs, Karen Fuss-Sommer, faculty member, Minnie Lucio, community member, Abraham Ponce, student member, and Mary Manzano, staff member.

Ms. Zimmerman reported that Dr. Silva provided an update on the Athletics program. She reported that the Volleyball team is performing very well and is poised to go to regional competition this year. Dr. Silva stated that the men and women's golf team are competing in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) for the first time. She also reported that the Baseball program under Coach Barta, has signed 10 local student athletes. The program currently has a roster made up of 39 student athletes of which 6 are from Puerto Rico, 5 from Canada, 1 from Illinois and 27 from Texas. The students mentioned that University’s affiliation with the NAIA has allowed them to continue to compete as well as continue with their studies on this campus.

Ms. Zimmerman explained that 35% of the Athletics program’s funding comes from the Student Services Fee. A student referendum is schedule for November 14 and 15. The referendum will ask students to vote on an Athletic Fee of $7 per semester credit hour to go in effect in Fall 2008. This fee will allow the Athletics Program to increase its support services and continue to grow.

Ms. Zimmerman announced that beginning in Spring 2007, the Student Union, International Education, Medical Services and Student Recreation fees will be waived for students taking their courses online and live outside of Cameron and Willacy counties.

Ms. Zimmerman reported that Mr. Vince Solis, Assistant Vice President for Student Development, provided an update on Phase II of the Student Housing. The project is currently in the architect selection stage. The staff is recommending that the Student Affairs Partnership Committee serve as the Board Bond Advisory Committee for Phase II of the Student Housing project. Staff is currently reviewing the architect proposals to decide on a short list of about 3 to 5 firms to invite for interviews.
